- can work under pressure and flexible hours
- can work independently and take on responsibility for assignments
- are a team player, pro-active, enthusiastic and sociable with a positive outlook

About Global Fashion Agenda

Global Fashion Agenda is a global initiative founded by the non-profit company Danish Fashion Institute in 2016. With a mission to make sustainability fashionable, we aim to mobilise the global fashion system to change the way we produce and consume fashion, for a world beyond next season. We believe that sustainability must become an integral way of doing business for fashion brands, which is why our efforts are focused on global fashion brands – of all sizes and across all segments. To ensure impact, we specifically aim to reach decision-makers.

How to apply

Apply by sending an application along with your CV to communication manager Maria Jæpelt Petersen at maria@globalfashionagenda.com. Application deadline is 4 December with interviews being conducted in week 50.

The internship is unpaid and is a great opportunity to obtain relevant experience within the communication field during your education and gain insight into the fashion industry in general. We therefore prefer that interns can get credit for the internship.
