

SUSTAINABILITY INTERN

AT GLOBAL FASHION AGENDA & COPENHAGEN FASHION SUMMIT

Global Fashion Agenda is looking for a motivated intern with strong communication skills to support the Content team. The internship begins 8 January 2018 and lasts for six months.

You will assist the content team at Global Fashion Agenda that is primarily responsible for developing the programme for the Copenhagen Fashion Summit, the content for the Pulse of the Fashion Industry report and for managing the 2020 Circular Fashion System Commitment. This work is done via a wide variety of platforms from education to politics and communication.

Assignments

- Assist with the management of commitment signatories and commitment progress reporting
- Assist in the development of toolboxes and organising of webinars for commitment signatories
- Assist with survey development and case research for the 2018 Pulse of the Fashion Industry report
- Assist in speaker content and briefings for Copenhagen Fashion Summit 2018
- Assist in the development and maintenance of our CRM database
- Managing RSVPs for events and working on door as required
- Support the team in any ad hoc duties and internal administration support

You...

- are a student at a higher education institution with an interest in developing your professional skills through practical experience
- have a background in sustainability, business, political science, humanities and/or communication
- have a passion for sustainability
- have a high-spirited work attitude and embrace challenges with a positive mind
- can take the initiative, work independently and take on responsibility for assignments
- can adapt to different work situations and are willing to work flexible hours
- possess strong English communication skills, both written and spoken

About Global Fashion Agenda

Global Fashion Agenda is a global initiative founded by the non-profit company Danish Fashion Institute in 2016. With a mission to make sustainability fashionable, we aim to mobilise the global fashion system to change the way we produce and consume fashion, for a world beyond next season. We believe that sustainability must become an integral way of doing business for fashion brands, which is why our efforts are focused on global fashion brands – of all sizes and across all segments. To ensure impact, we specifically aim to reach decision-makers.

How to apply

Apply by sending an application along with your CV to content manager Sofia Tärneberg at sofia@globalfashionagenda.com. Application deadline is 27 November with interviews being conducted in week 49.

The internship is unpaid and is a great opportunity to obtain relevant experience within and gain insight into the sustainability field in the global fashion industry during your education. We therefore prefer that interns can get credit for the internship.